This inviting three-bedroom, two-bathroom property is situated within the charming El Galan community of Villamartin, along the picturesque Orihuela Costa. Conveniently located just a leisurely stroll from a range of local conveniences, this residence also boasts a delightful proximity to the sun-kissed shores, with the beach a mere 10 minutes away. The bustling Alicante airport is comfortably accessible within a 35-minute drive, connecting you to the outside world with ease. Step inside to discover a living space that is fully outfitted with stylish and functional furnishings, ensuring that comfort and practicality go hand in hand. The private pool is an ideal sanctuary for tranquil days spent basking in the Spanish sun or enjoying a refreshing dip. Additionally, the property is part of a gated urbanization, offering residents a sense of security and privacy. The home is thoughtfully designed with one spacious bedroom on the ground floor, which is complemented by two further well-appointed bedrooms on the first floor, each adorned with fitted wardrobes for ample storage. A ground floor toilet provides added practicality for everyday living and entertaining. Each of the two first floor bedrooms have solariums. Indulge in the luxury of not one, but three communal heated swimming pools, perfect for year-round dips or socializing with neighbors in the warm embrace of the Mediterranean climate. This appealing abode promises a serene and well-connected lifestyle, surrounded by the vibrant energy of the region's golf courses, beaches, and entertainment venues.
